ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

The influenza epidemic in St. Albans seems to be clearing up.

George D. Nash, a well known resident of Winooski, died at Hollywood, Cal., Jan. 1. He was in his 83d year. The remains will be brought to Winooski for Orrin Peer Allen, known as a geneale gist, who was a native of Wallingford died at Palmer, Mass., Tuesday night. He was twice married, his last wife, Lueinda E. Scott of Vernon, dying recently.

Frederick Lavijette of Shelburne has returned home, having been honorably discharged from the U. S. navy. He re-ceived slight injuries when his ship, the Santa Maria, was torpedoed and sunk off the Irish coast last February.

Frank Mack was stepped on and kicked by his horse when he went into the animal's stall recently and slipped to the floor. Although no bones were broken, he was badly bruised and has not been able to sit up for several days.

The Burlington Business Men's association has petitioned the Rutland railroad to resume the morning southbound passenger train which was discontinued when the war made necessary a reduction in train service. There is no train from Burlington to Rutland between the sleeper and the 1:40 p. m. flyer.

Despite wide publicity given to the re moval of the office of Federal Food Ad-ministrator F. H. Brooks from Montpel-ier to St. Johnsbury, mail continues to be addressed to Montpelier. Therefore, the food administrator requests the publie to bear the change in mind when they are addressing his office.

Eugene H. Wood, who was rushed to his home in Burlington from Indianapo-lis, when he was stricken with appendicitis, died after an operation in the former city Tuesday. He was 47 years of age and leaves his wife, two brothers R. A. Wood of Boston and L. W. Wood of Taunton, Mass., and a sister, Jennie M. Porter of Washington, D. C.

and his assistant, Dr. Burgess of Barre, are going about the southern part of the state doing dental work under the Proctor fund for rural dental work. They are now in Marlboro and expect to continue their work in Halifax next.

Dr. Charles E. Clark of West Brattle-Cross commission in Palestine. He writes, among other things: "The British are restoring order, stopping looting, cleaning things up and repairing the roads leading to and from the city. The American Red Cross asked some of us to start relief work for the people of the city. We rented a house and have opened the medical work. The patients start pounding at the door at 6 o'clock in the morning and it is quite evident that we are to be kept busy."
